Their FBICC Experience

Ana Mestek (Slovenia)
FBICC program is exactly the push I need to start learning and using my Indonesian actively. The course is well structured and the teachers made everybody feel included. They were also challenging enough to motivate me to study on my own, and after each session I saw real progress in my everyday language use.

Reem M. H. Arada (Palestine)
FBICC course exceeded my expectations. I learned a lot of Indonesian culture, such as dance and batik, in addition to language skill such as reading and speaking. I would like to invite all students to study Indonesian regularly, you will find that Bahasa Indonesia is not difficult to learn.

ITS welcomes March by participating in a lot of tournaments and events.

To support technology innovation, ITS has been preparing for international-level championships. This year, ITS' Bayucaraka team is ready to take part in the Singapore Amazing Flying Machine Competition (SAFMC). ITS' Bayucaraka sent six representatives from the Soeromber team to display three autonomous-based robots. Not only Bayucaraka, but ITS' Barunastra team also invented Nala Proteus to compete in the International Roboat Competition 2023 in Florida, United States. With the latest innovation from the Barunastra team, they are confident they can complete eight missions in this prestigious annual competition and become the winner again.
